Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF (Nasdaq: GBUG)

GBUG (the Fund) is an actively managed ETF that aims to provide long-term capital appreciation by investing in shares of gold- and silver-focused companies that are engaged in exploring, developing and mining; or royalty and streaming companies engaged in the financing of gold and silver assets. The investment strategy of the Fund is value-oriented and contrarian.

Key Points

- 1. Actively Managed by a Global Leader – Sprott Asset Management has over four decades of specialized leadership in precious metals and mining investments.
- 2. Value of Active Management in Miners – Given the operational complexities of mining operations, investors may benefit from an active strategy focused on long-term business fundamentals and/or growth potential.
- 3. Miners May Be Undervalued Versus Bullion – Gold and silver mining stocks are historically correlated to the underlying bullion, but are not always in sync.* In recent years, miners have lagged behind the price of bullion, creating significant catch-up potential.
- 4. The Flexibility of an Active ETF – GBUG combines the daily transparency, liquidity, and potential tax efficiency of an ETF with the expertise of active management.

Sprott's Active Management Advantage

GBUG, an actively managed ETF of gold and silver mining stocks, seeks to provide the following advantages:

- Stock selection based on our 100+ years of collective experience investing in miners with prospects of strong growth or takeover potential. Variability of individual company performance within the mining sector is considerable, so stock picking can potentially add substantial value.
- The investment team has cultivated strong relationships within the mining sector. It conducts over 200 management meetings annually. Key criteria for assessing management include familiarity, credibility, alignment of interests and the required skill sets for different development stages.
- The investment team assesses capital needs, timelines, financing strategies, detailed valuation metrics combined with dynamic modeling for sensitivity testing to multiple variables including prices, costs, tax regimes, royalty and streaming obligations, and debt obligations.

There is no guarantee these objectives will be met. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF (GBUG) Investment Process

Boots on the Ground

- The Sprott team of geologists and mining engineers conducts technical reviews of up to 30 site visits annually to assess asset potential, identify challenges, and explore geologic opportunities
- Countries have included Australia, Bolivia, Brazil, Cambodia, Canada, Colombia, Cote D'Ivoire, Guatemala, Mexico, Morocco, Nicaragua, Papua New Guinea, Peru, Spain, Senegal and the U.S.

The Case for Gold and Silver Mining Equities

New Political Environment for Gold

“I think we’re in a long-term bull market in Gold. We’re seeing reserve accumulation by central banks. I follow it closely. It’s my biggest position.”*

– Scott Bessent, U.S. Secretary of the Treasury, Nov. 4, 2024

Source: Capital Allocators with Ted Seides podcast, 11/4/2024.

*A bull market is a financial market in which prices are rising or expected to rise.

Sprott's Gold and Silver Mining Equities Outlook

Gold Mining Equities:

- Gold bullion gained 27.22% in 2024 to close at $2,635 per ounce, while gold mining equities gained 10.64%* on average in 2024, with a wide variance in individual performance
- The gold price has been driven higher by multiple factors including unprecedented central bank buying and declining interest rates
- Gold equities have historically provided leverage to the gold price, making them a compelling investment choice
- Despite recent gains, we believe gold mining equities are very undervalued relative to the gold price. Improved fundamentals have yet to be recognized by investors

Silver Mining Equities:

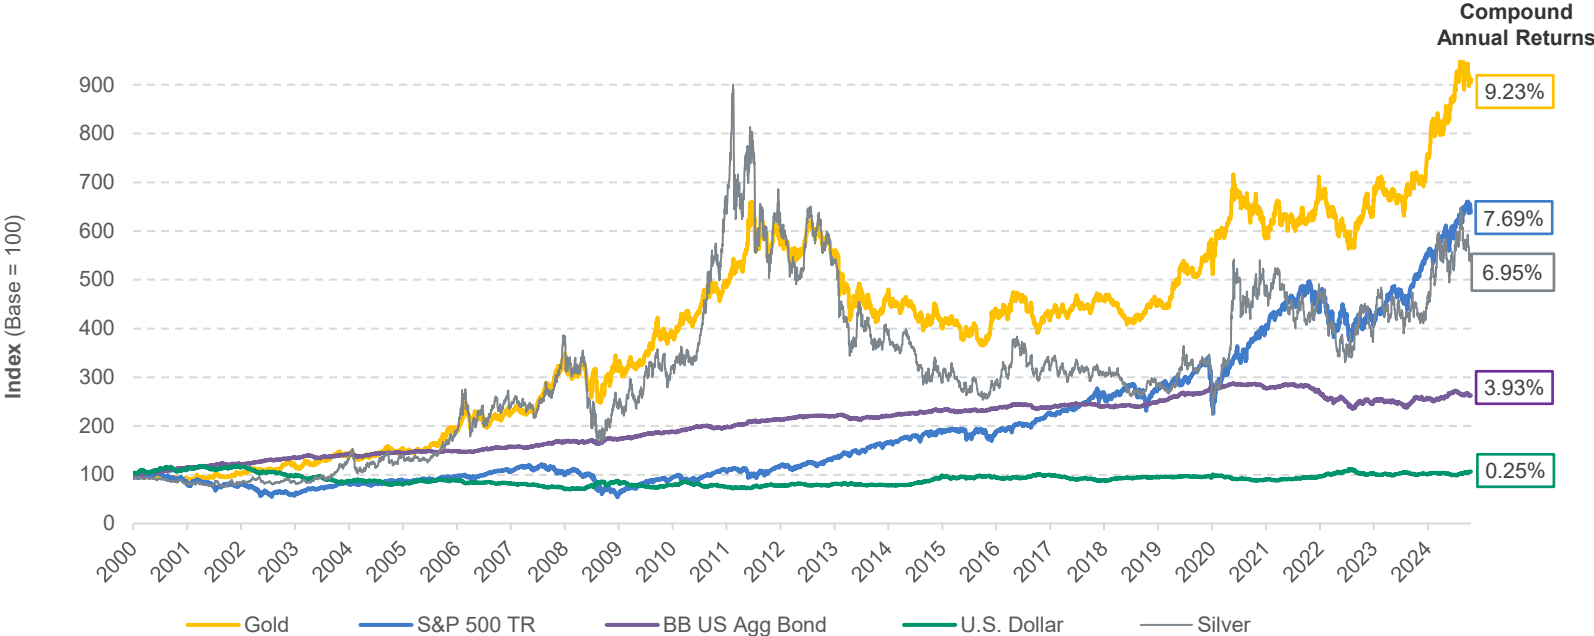

- Silver bullion gained more than 20% in 2024, boosted by its duality as a precious and industrial metal, and has faced five consecutive years of market deficits due to growing industrial demand and stagnant supply
- Silver has unique and valuable physical properties and is essential in the expansion of green technologies, including solar energy, 5G networks, AI and automotive electronics, which are driving demand
- Silver has lagged gold, with the gold-to-silver ratio above its historical average, indicating potential catch-up gains for silver prices
- Historically, silver equities have outperformed physical silver during bull markets, making them a compelling investment choice

Fundamentals Support a Long-Term Uptrend in Gold

- Since 1980, the quantity of above-ground gold has a 1.83% CAGR vs. a CAGR of 8.9% for U.S. government debt outstanding.
- Gold “float” is extremely limited. Approximately $4 trillion vs. global equities of $100 trillion and sovereign debt of $300 trillion
- “Where there is value there is no liquidity, and where there is liquidity there is no value.” – Old saying quoted in “The Window Closes Again” Pollitt & Co. commentary 2/11/2025

Central Banks Purchases of Gold Have Accelerated

The last three years have marked a significant increase in central bank demand for gold, as they seek to diversify their assets

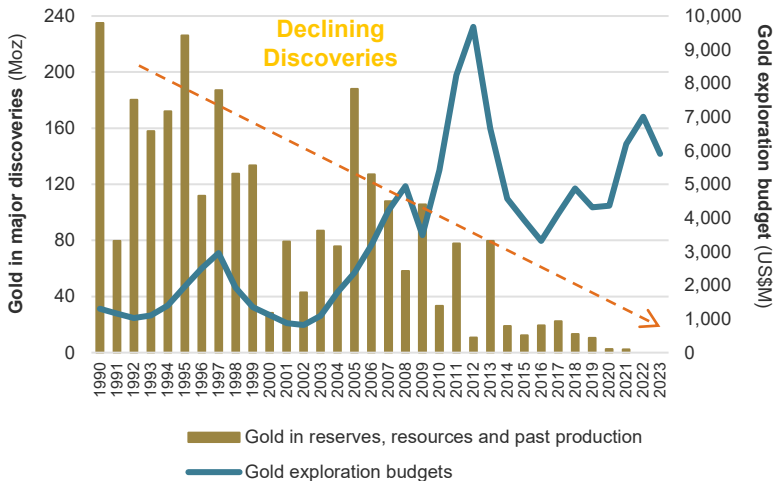

Source: Bloomberg. Data as of 12/31/2024.

Gold Supply Factors: Discovery & Production

- Despite record spending on exploration, new gold discoveries are less frequent
- As gold production trends higher and discoveries dwindle, ore quality has become more marginal; there are likely not enough quality deposits to sustain future production without gold prices rising

Silver May Be Undervalued Relative to Gold

On average, gold has historically been priced at 67x the price of silver. At 91 currently, silver is currently priced at a discount to gold, and there may be a catch-up opportunity. Further, silver is mined at only 7:1 that of gold.

*The gold/silver ratio is a measure that indicates how many ounces of silver are needed to purchase one ounce of gold. It is calculated by dividing the current spot price of gold by the current spot price of silver.

Silver Market Deficits Persist

- With rising demand and stagnant supply, the silver market has been in deficit for the past five consecutive years (including exchange-traded product (ETP) investment)
- Silver industrial demand grew 11% to a record 654 million ounces in 2023 and is expected to grow to 711 million ounces in 2024
- Key drivers in this growth are rooted in a strong green economy, including investment in photovoltaics (PV), power grids and 5G networks, as well as increased use of automotive electronics and supporting infrastructure

Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF (GBUG): Portfolio Allocation

Gold and Silver Miners Have Offered Diversification

Gold and silver miners have exhibited a low/moderate correlation to major asset classes, posing potential diversification benefits.

Gold and Silver Miners Correlation* to Other Asset Classes

Please Note: Correlation is a measurement of the relationship between two assets and is expressed as a number between +1 and -1. A zero correlation indicates there is no relationship between the assets. A +1 indicates an absolute positive correlation (they always move together in the same direction). A -1 indicates an absolute negative correlation (they always move together in opposite directions of each other).

Diversification does not eliminate the risk of experiencing investment losses. You cannot invest directly in an index. Included for illustrative purposes only. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Gold Miners Index reflects the NYSE Arca Gold Miners NTR Index (GDMNTR Index); BCOM reflects the Bloomberg Commodity Index (BCOM Index); S&P 500 reflects the S&P 500 Index (SPX Index); Bbg U.S. Agg Bond reflects the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Aggregate Bond Index (LBUTRUU Index); FTSE Equity REITs reflects the FTSE NAREIT Equity Index (FNRE Index); U.S. TIPS reflects the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. Treasury Inflation-Notes Index (LBUTTRUU Index); U.S. Dollar reflects the U.S. Dollar Spot Index (DXY Curncy). Risk Disclosures and Other Important Information

This material must be preceded or accompanied by a prospectus. An investor should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses carefully before investing. To obtain a Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF Statutory Prospectus, which contains this and other information, visit <https://sprottets.com/gbug/prospectus>, contact your financial professional or call 888.622.1813. Read the Prospectus carefully before investing.

The Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF is new and has limited operating history. Investors in the Fund should be willing to accept a high degree of volatility in the price of the Fund's shares and the possibility of significant losses. The Fund will be concentrated in the gold, silver and precious metals mining and related industries. As a result, the Fund will be sensitive to changes in, and its performance will depend to a greater extent on, the overall condition of the gold, silver and precious metals industry, highly dependent on the price of gold and silver bullion. The gold, silver and precious metals industry can be significantly affected by competitive pressures, central bank operations, events relating to international political developments, the success of exploration projects, commodity prices, adverse environmental developments and tax and government regulations. An investment in the Fund involves a substantial degree of risk. The Fund is not suitable for all investors. The Fund is considered non-diversified and can invest a greater portion of assets in securities of individual issuers than a diversified fund. As a result, changes in the market value of a single investment could cause greater fluctuations in share price than would occur in a diversified fund.

The Fund adviser's judgments about the growth, value, or potential appreciation of an investment may prove to be incorrect or fail to have the intended results, which could adversely impact the Fund's performance relative to its benchmark.

Shares are not individually redeemable. Investors buy and sell shares of the Sprott Active Gold & Silver Miners ETF on a secondary market. Only market makers or "authorized participants" may trade directly with the Fund, typically in blocks of 10,000 shares.

Funds that emphasize investments in small/mid-cap companies will generally experience greater price volatility. Diversification does not eliminate the risk of investment losses. ETFs are considered to have continuous liquidity because they allow an individual to trade throughout the day. A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual Fund operating expenses, affect the Fund's performance.

Sector weightings are determined using the Bloomberg Industry Classification Standard ("BICS").
